

LOGIC-LEVEL TEACHER (MIDDLE SCHOOL)

About Wonderview

Wonderview is a classical, Christian hybrid school that partners with families to cultivate wisdom and virtue in students. Rooted in a Christ-centered worldview, we train students to think critically, communicate clearly, and delight in learning. As a hybrid school, we balance classroom instruction with at-home learning, fostering a collaborative educational experience similar to a University-style schedule.

Job Overview

We are seeking a passionate Logic-Level Teacher to instruct middle school students (grades 6-8) in a classical Christian setting. The ideal candidate will guide students through the Logic stage of learning, helping them analyze ideas, recognize fallacies, and engage in thoughtful discussions. This role requires a desire to learn about classical pedagogy, strong classroom leadership, and the ability to mentor students in both intellectual and spiritual formation.

Flexible Teaching Opportunities: This position can be structured as a full-day M/W/Th or teach a particular subject of interest. There are roughly 87 teaching days. Teachers may choose to instruct one or multiple subjects, including Literature, History, Bible, Composition, Formal Logic, Math, Science, Speech and Debate

Key Responsibilities

- Teach assigned subject(s) using classical methodologies and a Christ-centered approach.
- Encourage critical thinking through Socratic discussions, debates, and written analysis.
- Train students in formal logic, reasoning, and effective argumentation (if applicable).
- Integrate biblical truth into all subjects, fostering a Christian worldview.
- Guide students in structured writing, persuasive essays, and oral presentations.
- Partner with parents to support at-home learning and provide guidance for home instruction days.
- Assess student progress through discussion-based evaluations, written assessments, and projects.
- Cultivate an engaging and orderly classroom environment that fosters both academic rigor and joyful discovery.

Qualifications

- A deep understanding of and commitment to classical Christian education.
- Bachelor's degree (or equivalent experience).
- A deep love of working with youth
- Strong classroom management and the ability to engage middle school learners.
- A personal and vibrant Christian faith committed to disciplining students in truth and virtue.

Why Join Wonderview?

- Be part of a mission-driven community that values both academic excellence and spiritual formation.
- Collaborate with like-minded educators and families in a supportive hybrid learning environment.
- Inspire students with a curriculum rooted in truth, goodness, and beauty.
- Enjoy flexible teaching opportunities with the option to focus on one or more subjects.

If you are passionate about training students to think logically and love wisdom, we invite you to apply! Interested? If you have questions or an interest in applying, please reach out to Libby Farmen - libby@wonderviewschool.org

